

Lesson 8: Resource Sheet 1

Zermatt, Switzerland, lies at the foot of the Matterhorn, one of the world's not famous landform features. The village is a popular tourist destination. The scenery is spectacular. In summer, people travel from around the world to walk the alpine trails and to view the area's many glaciers. In winter, Zermatt is a popular winter sports destination.

Source: Grant Kleeman