

Travel Brochures

Structure of travel brochures

When looking for a travel brochure it is important to look for the following:

- Name of the country
- How do you travel to the country
- World map with the location of the country
- Landmarks to see/ Things to do
- Food that is special in that country
- Celebrations special to that country
- Weather in that country